Dear Parishioner

Welcome to the Parish of Holy Cross, Bedford!

We hope you settle in well and soon feel a part of the parish community. You may already have discovered our website with information about Mass times, confessions, groups and societies, news and events that make up our thriving community.

However, you may appreciate having this information sheet to stick on your fridge door with the basic details to hand so that you don't have to go searching for them, or wonder where you put the newsletter!
